AN ACT

To repeal sections 55.030 and 475.115, RSMo, and to enact in lieu thereof three new sections relating to political subdivisions.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Sections 55.030 and 475.115, RSMo, are repealed and three

- 2 new sections enacted in lieu thereof, to be known as sections 55.030, 475.115, and
- 3 488.070, to read as follows:

55.030. The county auditor of a county [of the first class] having a charter

- 2 form of government shall prescribe, with the approval of the governing body of the
- 3 county and the state auditor, the accounting system of the county. He shall keep
- 4 accounts of all appropriations and expenditures made by the governing body of
- 5 the county; and no warrant shall be drawn or obligation incurred without his
- 3 certification that an unencumbered balance, sufficient to pay the same, remains
- 7 in the appropriation account against which such warrant or obligation is to be
- 8 charged. He shall audit and examine all accounts, demands, and claims of every
- 9 kind and character presented for payment against such county, and shall approve
- 10 to the governing body of the county all lawful, true, and just accounts, demands,
- 11 and claims of every kind and character payable out of the county revenue or out
- 12 of any county funds before the same shall be allowed and a warrant issued
- 13 therefor. Whenever the county auditor deems it necessary to the proper
- 14 examination of any account, demand, or claim, he may examine the parties,
- 15 witnesses, and others on oath or affirmation touching any matter or circumstance
- 16 in the examination of such account, demand, or claim. At the direction of the 17 governing body of the county, he shall audit the accounts of all officers and 18 employees of the county and upon their retirement from office and shall keep a correct account between the county and all county officers; and he shall examine 19 20all records and settlements made by them for and with the governing body of the county or with each other; and the county auditor shall, at all reasonable times, 2122have access to all books, county records, or papers kept by any county or township 23officer, employee, or road overseer. He may keep an inventory of all county 24property under the control and management of the various officers and 25departments and shall annually take an inventory of any such property at an original value of [two hundred fifty] one thousand dollars or more showing the 26 27 amount, location and estimated value thereof. He shall perform such other duties in relation to the fiscal administration of the county as the governing body of the 28county shall from time to time prescribe. The county auditor shall not be 29personally liable for any costs for any proceeding instituted against him in his 30 31 official capacity.

475.115. 1. When a guardian or conservator dies, is removed by order of the court, or resigns and his or her resignation is accepted by the court, the court shall have the same authority as it has in like cases over personal representatives and their sureties and may appoint another guardian or conservator in the same manner and subject to the same requirements as are herein provided for an original appointment of a guardian or conservator.

2. A public administrator may request transfer of any case to the jurisdiction of another county by filing a petition for transfer. If the receiving county meets the venue requirements of section 475.035 and the public administrator of the receiving county consents to the transfer, the court shall transfer the case. The court with jurisdiction over the receiving county shall, without the necessity of any hearing as required by section 475.075, appoint the public administrator of the receiving county as successor guardian and/or successor conservator and issue letters therein. In the case of a conservatorship, the final settlement of the public administrator's conservatorship shall be filed within thirty days of the court's transfer of the case, in the court with jurisdiction over the original conservatorship, and forwarded to the receiving county upon audit and approval.

488.070. In addition to any other cost, fee, or surcharge 2 authorized by law, the circuit clerk of any judicial circuit located in any county with a charter form of government and with more than six hundred thousand but fewer than seven hundred thousand inhabitants may impose and collect any cost, fee, or surcharge that any provision of this chapter authorizes another judicial circuit to collect in any county, or city not within a county, in any civil, criminal, or domestic, action, provided that such cost, fee, or surcharge is authorized by the county's voters at a general, primary, or special election. Such funds shall be retained by the circuit clerk to provide for the needs of the judicial circuit.
